RMAQ, Pre-Employment Polygraph Interview and Examination

The Pre-Employment Polygraph (PEP) Interview and Examination is part of the RCMP Regular Member recruiting process. You, as the Applicant, must first complete the RMAQ for the purpose of employment with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP). The PEP is used to assist in determining suitability and reliability, and to contribute to the security screening assessment of an RCMP Regular Member Applicant.

In this RMAQ, you will be asked to make statements about your life. Based on those statements, the polygraph examiner will ask you a series of questions to determine if you have been completely and totally truthful. You should answer all questions contained in this RMAQ accurately and honestly.

Do not falsify, misrepresent, minimize, lie about or leave out facts, or neglect to mention or purposely withhold any information about your background. An incomplete RMAQ may result in your disqualification from the recruiting process.
