

Chay

Chay was always a good person; he would foster puppies and volunteer around town whenever he. I have known him my entire highschool year and haven't seen him do anything bad. He was also pretty good at cooking since he volunteered at the homeless shelter. Chay was well behaved and was never late for school

Austin

I met Austin in 10th grade he seemed to be pretty nice. He would always participate in community events and was always a good sport about things he would never get upset about. Losing Austin would never do anything on a Wednesday because he would be doing his homework and not leave the house

Keigan

I met Keigan in 6th grade in middle school. He's always been a good student with high grades. He worked at his father's tobacco and weed shop.

Keigan has done taekwondo and helps teach the younger students to do taekwondo

Group of them

Devon the Coach

They played on the same team at hockey they always listened and were always engaged in activities and after the hockey drills Chay,Austin and Keigan always stayed after to help clean up.

They helped newbies learn to play hockey better for the last 10 years

They were always early to practice every time and was never late
